1854 To Albert C. Robinson, Esq.
March 20 Sent by to day's mail, a long letter speaking of the Dalles, its soil, timber, climate, destitution of everything like quarters and conveniences for stock, and the stock itself. Wrote humorously, and not for publication, but said if anything would interest their readers to frame it and fit it up for his columns.

Asked him to discontinue sending the Advocate to York direct, but send it to me, Wascoy P.O. and remit bill showing how I stand, &c.

Pay Mr. St. Clair Denny, Washington, D.C.
July 17th '84 Enclosed my pay accounts for April, May, June, & July, amounting to $397.63 which I requested to be remitted, as follows; to Mrs. Bridget Mc-Guire, No. 144 Illinois St., Chicago, Ill., the sum of $100.⁰⁰ and the remainder (i.e.
$297.63) to Mrs. Charlotte B. Cox, York, Pa.

Note. Sent the above off from the Valley, same day, by Pay Mr. A. Smith, who will mail them at Fort Vancouver, sent pay for postage with him.

July 17th Drew from Pay Mr. Albert A. Smith my pay for August 1884 amounting to $102.90.
Could not get a draft from him, therefore sent pay acct., as above, to Pay Mr. Denny, Wash.
In the acct., the pay for Cong. Co. commenced April 6th, and one month's servant's pay, from April 20th to May 21st, was dropped, as he was then in my employ, amounting thus to $397.63

Capt. McGuire desirous of sending home $100.⁰⁰ paid it over to me, hence the order above.

To Mrs. J. H. Cox, York, Penna.

July 17th Note that I had just sent the pay acct. and she might expect $297.63. Stated that I expected soon to hear from Mr. Cotton of New York, and then I could form some definite idea as to how long it will be before I get out of debt.

Have the news briefly, wrote in haste, as I sent the letter by Pay Mr. Smith to be mailed at Ft. Vancouver, who expected soon to go; he went that evening about 6 o'clock.

Recommended that Ellen sell her York Bank Stock and invest in something else as it is now as high as it ever will get, and the per centage will be less than if ~~it~~ and her shares will now bring, were invested in a stock or something yielding 6 or 8 per cent.

To Uncle Henry Walsh, York, Pa.

Oct. 25th '84 Wrote a long letter in answer to his of Sept. 2^d, announcing the true state of Mrs.
Cox' health, &c. Thanked him for his kindness, and spoke affectionately of Mother. Gave him an account of the Winnebago War, criticising the return as a ~~faux pas~~, as the weather would have favored the Troops just about the time the horses would have been sufficiently recovered to act against the Indians. Spoke of the promotions in my Regt., and my being Senior Capt., and my right to a command, suggesting that Pres.
Pierce understood this principal so well, that if it were hinted, by him, it might obtain a command for me which otherwise would be lost as the expense of moving my company would stop this movement in my favor. Spoke of Mr. Cotton as an agent. Thought his slowness the cause of apprehension to Mrs. Cox and deserved reproof. Also, spoke of the house in York and regretted its being a source of annoyance to Mrs. Cox. Thanked him for his attention to these affairs and for the New York Herald. Spoke of his family and their whereabouts & closed with remarks.

1854. To Ellen H. Cox, York, Pa.
Octob. 29th. Enclosed a note payable to Mrs. Charlotte R. Cox for $800.00 with interest from the date of the payment of a like sum to Mr. Eli Lewis. Stated that if Mother wanted any money that I might send on to use it and credit the sum retained on the back of this note.

Spoke of being prepared for Mother's demise at any moment, and told her that our quarters were always open for her and she should make her home with us, if she like to risk the Soldier's fortune in regard to moving. Spoke of the mails, and accounted for her letters coming all at once.

1854 To Ellen H. Cox, York, Penna.
Nov. 15th Wrote to inform Ellen of the birth of a daughter, on "Hallow Eve", Octob. 31st, at six o'clock, P.M.. Gave her rather a detail of the event, showing how easy this confinement was in comparison to her York experience. While writing, received the mail, and acknowledged the receipt of her letter dated 16th Sept., and Uncle Welsh's, informing me of the death of Mrs. Cox, (on the evening of the 17th Sept.,) dated Sept. 18th. asked her to thank Uncle for the consoling manner in which he communicated the news. Told her that Herman would write about the wishes of her mother, and arranging the House business in Geo St., but that she desired to retain one third of the Bank Stock as a fixed fact.

Sent this letter, by Lieut Macfeely, to Fort Vancouver, W.T., on the 3rd of November 1854.

1854. Novemb. 8th Drew pay from Maj. Albert S. Smith, U.S.A., for the months of September and October 1854 and included $3.73 for servant's pay in August last, also, Viche's rations $6.20, not included in my pay by Pay Mr. Denny, the whole amounting to $22.23.

1854. To Joseph H. Lawton, Esq. N. Y.
Mr. 10th wrote at considerable length about my Green Bay interests, (besides family matters,) and Mr. Cotton's silence. Sent a list of debts due me &c. showing a sum of over $2500.⁰⁰; enquire if practicable to get a loan of $500. or $1000.⁰⁰ from his bank, and asked him to write me promptly, giving me a full statement in regard to my money matters, and Mr. Cotton refused him any information to report him to Uncle Welsh and myself.

1854 To Henry Welsh Esq. York &c.
Mr. 13th wrote about my private affairs gave an account of my intended arrangements to settle with Mrs. Cof's estate, and showed how my accounts should stand at Green Bay. Referred to Mr. Cotton's silence, quoted what I had written to Mr. Lawton about getting information from Mr. Cotton and if he refused it to report the fact promptly to Uncle Welsh and me with remarks upon the subject. Asked Uncle to transfer this Agency to Mr. Lawton, if it is not satisfactory, as he has the power and Mr. Cotton's receipt for my papers left with him.
So, the retained draft of Cotton filed away with Howard mem^o, for further particulars.

1855. To Major David Hunter, Pay Mr.
New York City.
March 16th Enclosed a receipt, in duplicate, of Pay Mr. B. Alvord's, for three hundred and seventy-one Dollars, with an order to pay to my order, and requested him to pay John Livingston 157 Broadway, N.Y.C., on delivering receipt of an Express Co. for 4 vols.
of his "Portraits & memoirs &c" addressed to Henry Welsh, Esq., York, the sum of Eleven Dollars.
That W. T. Jennings &c. New York City would draw on him for fifty Dollars, and to enclose a draft for three hundred to Henry Welsh Esq.
York. States that if Livingston did not attend to my affairs in a reasonable time to send the Eleven Dollars to H. Welsh Esq.

To John Livingston, 157 Broadway.
March 16th wrote an answer to his last. I told him I would take a copy of his 4 vols. of "Portraits & memoirs of Eminent Americans now living" if well and handsomely bound, by carefully packing & delivering to some Express Co. for transmittal to Henry Welsh, Esq., York, Pa., and by presenting the Express Office's receipt to Pay Mr. Hunter, he would get $11.⁰⁰ which included pay for the number he sent me.

States I could not get a daguerrotype for him & heard his was a money making business & asked for some explanations, &c.

1855. To W. I. Jennings & Co. New York City
March 16th Enclosed an order on Pay Mr.
David Hunter, N.Y.C., in their favor for fifty Dollars. Gave reasons for not attending to it sooner - the shipwreck of Pay Mr. Alvord, &c. (I did not send pay order for the amt. could not just be made out.) I said; I hope this will prove satis-isfactory otherwise to advise me.

To Henry Welsh Esqr, York, Penn.
March 16th Answered his letter of Jan'y 17th and thanked him for his account, in detail, of the making out of Maum's will. Stated facts connected with Ellen's writings and sent 2 letters: (part of one of Augt. & one of Septemb.) to show how matters presented themselves to us, and how I was situated. Stated I thought it the result of ineffectiveness and not a desire to create mischief and that it left us ill feelings.

I explained why I did not want the house and advised Hennie to avoid it, but since we can hold it in common, I had no objection now to oppose, and will use Hennie's means to cancel the debt. Thanked him for the orders given about the house that I would request Hennie to attend to it as he desired it, and would see the bills paid off.

Henry Wells's letter continued stated that I had sent Maj. Alvord's receipt to pay Mr. Hunter, N.Y. City, and he would remit a draft for $300.00 to him, which I wished to be applied to Mr. Lewis' balance if not otherwise needed. Spoke of $100.00 which my mother left with these for me, and I had directed to be paid Mr. Lewis and ~~sent~~ me a statement of the balance due him on the 1st May, 1855.

Spoke of a letter from Mr. Lawton saying I would send my answer through him and if he approved it to endorse it and forward to Mr. Lawton.

Spoke of family matters, of Ellen's conduct formerly and the possibility of her not being engaged. That I had advised that one of the heirs get Mamma's entire right to the house in Water St., &c. so as to lessen the difficulty of disposing of it hereafter.

Hoped soon to get a surplus fund on hand to meet all expenditures on my account and then would pay up. That I had ordered 4 vols. of Livingston's "Portrait & Memoirs of eminent Americans now living" for him and hoped he would accept them.

asked him to return me Ellen's letters, and as she would not like my showing them, to keep them private until returned to me.

1856 To B. T. Kaller, York, Pa.
Feb. 12th Enclosed draft N. 60, of Major Ben.
Alvord, Paym^r. on the Ass^t. Treas^r. of U.S. at New York City, dated Jan^y 31st. 1856, at Ft. Vancouver, W.T., for Two hundred and fifty Dollars ($250.00) and directed him to pay Mother her dower, subscribe for York Gazette and pay in advance and pay anything else that I ought to attend to and report how matters stand about the house & Mrs Cox's estate.
Spoke also of the Indian difficulties and his wrong impressions of my scout.

N.B. This book, having become misplaced, was supposed to be lost. It had become packed up with useful papers and filed away until forgotten. In revising some old papers, it came to light, and is again put to use.

L.O.H.

Fort Townsend, W.T.
July 30th. 1858.

1858

Dr. T. A. Haller, York Pa.

Aug. 12th acknowledged the receipt of letter of June 25th and account current against the Ges. St. House. - By his statement $150. or $200. would be due me, and out of this there was left Mrs. interest to Thede & Maria $66²/₃ to be paid on 1st July '58, and hoped there would be left enough to pay off, with $1000.⁰⁰ and closes, the principal and interest which will be due Maria on the 30th Sep^r '58.

I enclosed Major Alvo's draft on the Asst. Tr. of the U.S. at New York, No 783, dated Ft. Vancouver, W.T., July 28th '58, payable to my order, one thousand dollars, which was transferred payable to his order. This, with ¹/₄ pr. Ch. premium, and $114. from the funds of mine, in his hands, would give $1116.⁵⁰ the amount in full due on the 30th September next, to Maria.

ask him to credit me with the amt. sent, and charge me with amt. paid to Sister, and remit another statement to show how we then stand, also who lives in the house, and the rent it yields, &c.

Thought I could pay him his share in November next when Pay m^r comes.

Promised to write him soon again, and closed hastily to be ready for mail.

1858

Dr. T. N. Haller York, Pa

Feb 7th

16th November '58. Spoke of my sending draft No 783, on the 12th Aug^r last, and promise to send another in November to pay off his claim. Accordingly send off Maj.
Alwood's draft, No. 865, on the Asst. Treas: of U.S. at New York, dated Ft. Vancouver, W.T., 16th Nov. '58, made payable to Dr. Theodore N.
Haller, or order, for eleven hundred dollars ($1100.⁰⁰). Although I had heard without hearing of former draft, I did not doubt it had reached him, and the next mail would advise me of it.
I hoped he would get this also, and should write immediately to show if all was closed up in relation to the house.

Wrote of the Fraser River mines, and private matters and news. Kept open the letter to add anything, on arrival of the next mail from the East, which ought to be noticed.
